Dear [Stakeholder]:

Our mission at Dominion Energy is to deliver reliable, affordable and increasingly clean energy that powers our customers every day. Exponential growth is driving the demand for energy in the Commonwealth of Virginia, and Dominion Energy is focused on meeting that need while increasing reliability. To support these efforts, Dominion Energy is planning the North Anna to Bristers 500 kilovolt (kV) Electric Transmission Project.

The Project includes building a new approximately 70-mile, 500 kV transmission line through Louisa, Spotsylvania, Caroline, Stafford, and Fauquier counties, primarily in existing right of way. The line will connect the existing North Anna Substation to the proposed Thornburg Substation in Caroline County. The North Anna to Bristers project will ultimately tie into the existing Bristers Substation in Fauquier County. This investment strengthens the grid, supports Virginia's energy security, and ensures reliable power for your community.

While Dominion has identified an existing right-of-way corridor which can accommodate this proposed, new electric transmission line, we also met with residents, local governments and stakeholders in November 2025 to gather feedback and input on several route alternatives in Caroline County. This feedback has been incorporated into refined routes that will be shared online and at upcoming community meetings in May. Please join us at any one of the meetings below for an opportunity to meet with our project team and discuss your questions.

This project remains in the early stages of development. Your input will help refine potential routes before they are submitted to the Virginia State Corporation Commission (SCC) for review and approval. Following approval from the SCC, Dominion Energy will conduct surveys to identify environmental, cultural, and historic resources, as well as any threatened and endangered species.
