Dear Neighbor:

Dominion Energy provides safe, reliable, affordable, and increasingly clean electricity to our customers—this commitment is at the core of our mission. We are ready to share with you updated details about an upcoming transmission line project, which will help meet the region's growing power demand and enhance the electrical grid's reliability.

The Morrisville-Wishing Star 500 & 230 Kilovolt (kV) Electric Transmission Project is a crucial initiative covering Fauquier, Prince William, and Loudoun counties. It involves installing a new 500 kV transmission line along or near 36.5 miles of existing right of way (ROW). Additionally, a new 230 kV transmission line will be added in Fauquier County, along with an expansion of the Morrisville Substation. This infrastructure upgrade will enhance our ability to deliver electricity efficiently and ensure the continued reliability of our electric grid.

The new transmission infrastructure will start at the Morrisville Substation in Fauquier County, continue north through Prince William County, and end at the Wishing Star Substation in Loudoun County. The existing right of way corridor may need to be expanded in some locations to accommodate the new 500 kV transmission line.

On average, the new transmission structures will be 175 feet tall. Enclosed is a map of the project area.
