

Gerald T. ‘Jerry’ Bischof
Senior Vice President–Nuclear Operations & Fleet Performance
Services

Gerald T. “Jerry” Bischof is senior vice president–Nuclear Operations & Fleet Performance.

He joined the company in 1981 as an assistant engineer in the Power Station Engineering & Construction department. From 1988 to 1996, he held engineering leadership positions at North Anna Power Station.

Bischof was named manager–Design Engineering for Nuclear in 1996, and in 2000, he became project manager–Configuration Management. From 2001 to 2004, he was director–Nuclear Engineering, responsible for engineering groups assigned to North Anna and Surry Power stations. In 2005, he became director–Nuclear Safety & Licensing at North Anna. He became vice president–Nuclear Engineering in July 2006 and site vice president–Surry Power Station in September 2008. He was named site vice president–North Anna Power Station in January 2012. He became vice president–Nuclear Operations & Fleet Performance in January 2017, and was promoted to his current post in April 2018.

A licensed professional engineer in Virginia, Bischof earned his senior reactor operator certification at North Anna and is a graduate of the Senior Nuclear Plant Managers program at the Institute of Nuclear Power Operations.

Bischof is a graduate of Virginia Tech with a bachelor’s degree in civil engineering and a master’s degree in systems engineering.