

W. Keller Kissam
President–Dominion Energy South Carolina

W. Keller Kissam is president–Dominion Energy South Carolina.

He oversees Dominion Energy’s regulated utility in South Carolina serving about 1.1 million electric and gas customer accounts.

Kissam joined SCANA in 1988 as a new utility professional and has held numerous positions in both electric and gas operations. He was named vice president–Gas Operations in 1996 and was named vice president–SCE&G Electric Operations in 2003 and President and Chief Operating Officer of SCE&G in 2017. In 2019, he was named president–Electric Operations at Dominion Energy South Carolina. He assumed his current position in January 2022.

He is a board member and past president of the Southeastern Electric Exchange and past president of the South Carolina Independent Schools Association, serves as chairman of the board of The Central South Carolina Economic Development Alliance.

Kissam earned a bachelor’s degree from The Citadel, The Military College of South Carolina, where he served as Regimental Commander of the South Carolina Corps of Cadets. He also received an Honorary Doctorate of Business from The Citadel in 2015 and is a member of The Citadel’s Business Hall of Fame.