

P. Rodney Blevins
President-Gas Distribution

P. Rodney Blevins is president-Gas Distribution.

He is responsible for leading Dominion Energy's gas distribution operations across the company's footprint.

Blevins joined Dominion in June 1987 as an associate engineer and held several positions across the electric distribution business. He was named vice president–Electric Operations in 2006, responsible for the operation of the company's electric distribution assets. He was appointed senior vice president and chief information officer in 2014, became president and chief executive officer of the Southeast Energy Group in January 2019, and was named president-Dominion Energy South Carolina, where he oversaw Dominion Energy's regulated utility in South Carolina serving about 1.1 million electric and gas customer accounts, in October 2019. He assumed his current role in January 2022.

Blevins earned a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Virginia Tech and completed the advanced management program at Duke University's Fuqua School of Business.

January 2022