In July 2021, Dominion Energy began monthly reporting of political contributions to 527 tax-exempt organizations and Virginia statewide candidate campaigns. As of November 2021, Dominion Energy expanded to monthly reporting of all campaign and Political Action Committee (PAC) contributions. Monthly PAC contribution reports can be viewed on the 2021 PAC Contributions site. The disclosures made on this website are in addition to applicable federal and state campaign finance disclosure requirements.

Dominion Energy no longer makes contributions to independent-only political expenditure committees in support of or in opposition to a campaign (also known as Super PACs), effective October 18, 2021. Dominion Energy does not make payments to influence the outcome of ballot measures.
